THE RESURRECTION OF TYRANNY on the 240th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence

By Paul Warren

Would you mind pausing for a moment of silence to lament the cancellation of the Declaration of Independence on its 240th birthday? Can we acknowledge the obvious - America's warrant for freedom from tyrannical government has been quietly rubbed out? A tyranny far worse than that of a British king has been resurrected by America's eviction of the main player in the American Revolution. The Media Education Complex that controls the American mind has expelled the Declaration's "Creator" - whom the founders believed gave them the American Revolution victory.

Who's willing to wake up and admit the fact that America in 2016 is so night-and-day opposite from 1776 that it is no longer the country the Revolution established? The Declaration put the God of the Bible in the most prominent position, calling on Him to be the Revolution's General. It invokes the hidden reality and authority of the "Creator," "the Supreme Judge of the world."

Are you aware THE DECLARATION CONCLUDES PRAYING TO (“appealing to”) “the Supreme Judge of the world” for His evaluation of the rebellion’s intentions and requesting his help? The God of the Bible was so important to the founders at the start of History’s Great Revolution he was cited four times in America’s birth certificate.

The Declaration begins with two terms describing the cosmic reality of the God of the Bible. (1) There is the “Creator,” and then (2) “the Laws of Nature” (i.e. the Creator rules the physical world by “laws”) and “Nature’s God” (who set the scientific laws that govern nature). Writers know the two most important places of a piece of writing are the beginning and the end. (3) The Declaration winds to an end calling the God of the Bible “the Supreme Judge of the world” (i.e., the ultimate Supreme Court Judge who one day will render his ruling on every person he has created). (4) America’s “birth certificate” concludes with a bold declaration of the founders’ confidence in “the protection of divine Providence.” The founders were not agnostics.

Why has the Media Education Complex denounced and ridiculed these sacred beliefs of our brilliant founders as “fundamentalist” superstition for most of the last century?

The Declaration is not merely citing the “laws of nature,” but rather the “Laws of Nature” that are the fingerprints of “Nature’s God,” not Mother Nature. When the Revolution was won, the founding fathers were united in the belief that the God of the Bible had freed them - just as he had freed the Hebrews from Pharaoh in the Exodus.

All this is deliberately hidden today by America’s anti-Christian Media Education Complex. However, these foundational beliefs of the Continental Congress are preserved for us in the first two proposals for America’s national insignia, the Great Seal. Days after the Declaration was read, both Franklin and Jefferson submitted the first proposals for the Great Seal. They both drew a scene from the second book of the Bible, Exodus, as the national symbol of the new nation - pictures of Pharaoh being defeated by God. This gives us a close-up picture of the mind of America’s founders and voids the idea that the founders were Euro-deists.

The idea of the American Revolution as a history-repeating-itself of the Bible’s Exodus story was not a passing fancy, or a fundamentalist misapplication of the Bible to history. The Big Idea of the American Revolution as a providential déjà-vu of the Hebrew Exodus remained etched into the American mind from the Declaration to Washington’s death, when eulogies typically referred to him as “America’s Moses.” This idea is now memorialized in a famous Washington, D.C. ceiling painting. “The Apotheosis of Washington,” in the nation’s capitol depicts Washington, like Moses, being escorted to heaven by angels.

About 90 years before the Revolution, William Penn founded Philadelphia, the place where America was established and the Declaration written. He is spiritually connected to the Declaration as an authentic American prophet (according to God’s definition of a prophet in Deuteronomy 18:21-22). Penn wrote that Philadelphia, and by extension, America, would be “governed by God or we will be governed by tyrants.” America’s 90-year elite denial of the “Creator” of the Declaration has produced the tyranny Penn forecast. The second president of History’s Great Nation in the 21st century rules like a Pharaoh, imperiously walking all over the Declaration’s younger brother, the Constitution.

A Tyrannosaurus Rex government has now replaced the freedom-from-tyrannical-government that America has represented to the world for two-and-a-half centuries. It treats evangelicals, who have the same view as America’s founders, as if they were America’s-Enemy-Within. On the other hand, the media’s denial that the “death-to-America” Muslim ruling class has declared war on America by calling Islam “a religion of peace,” is the brazen denial of history and reality. The plain fact of history is that what America’s ruling elite calls “a religion of peace” has waged the longest war in history - against Christianity - 1400 years.

Is it just “paranoia” to think the government media seems to fit the international definition of “treason” by providing “aid and comfort” to an enemy that may be America’s final conqueror? Hasn’t the media pretended for 15 years (the length of the American Revolution and World War II combined) that Islam is not fighting an escalating guerilla war on

America? And haven't the "mediums" been pretending with a straight face that millions of "illegal alien" Jihadists are not hidden in the shadows awaiting the apocalyptic blitzkrieg call?

Are you aware that Islam was the first enemy to declare war on America, in the Barbary War of 1801? Is it mere random chance that Islam resurrected its Holy War call on America on the 200th anniversary of the 1801 Jihad call - in 2001? Was 9-11 a symbolic announcement that Islam plans to finish what it started and lost in 1801?

Tyrannical government is on a campaign to control every aspect of Americans' lives, from their bodies (state health care) to their minds (the mind control mass media) while reducing them to serfs who work nearly half the year to feed an insatiably greedy Tyrannosaurus. The state-sanctioned execution of the most innocent Americans (unborn babies) is occurring at an astonishing rate that puts America ahead of the worst serial killers of the 20th century: Hitler, Stalin, Mao and Pol Pot.

In 1925, during the Scopes Trial, notorious atheist lawyer Clarence Darrow famously asked, "Has evolution ever hurt you, little boy?" Darrow hijacked the Tennessee trial, turning it upside down to condemn the Bible as antiquated superstition with one hand while elevating evolution to the status of proven science on the other. Well, we now have a definitive answer to Darrow's innocent question and it is, "yes," testified and echoed by the silent screams of nearly 60 million assassinated babies. Evolutionary belief is the foundation for abortion.

2016 is a very significant anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, which gave Americans the warrant for "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Under revolutionary evolutionary theory unborn children have been demoted from divinely created humans eligible for the protections of the Declaration's "life" provision to mere "protoplasm."

As it turns out, the 1776 American Revolution and the 1925 "Evolution Revolution" are in direct conflict with each other. The Evolution Revolution began with the Scopes Trial, which was ironically held in July at the time of America's 149th celebration of the creationist Declaration of Independence. It was there when the erasure of the Declaration's most famous line began. The Declaration presented the "Creator" God of the Bible as the authority on which American liberty is legitimized. However, an army of reporters on behalf of a gang of God-haters behind the curtain of the Scopes Trial helped nullify "creationism" in the court of public opinion.

Why did the press nickname "Scopes" "the trial of the century?" How could they know this when there was still 75 years to go in the century? Well, apparently they did know something. Hindsight is 20-20 and Scopes did indeed become confirmed as the "trial of the century" when 30 years later the Media Education Complex anointed evolution "proven science" without any evidence that Americans understood. As a practical matter, Evolution was a revolution against the Declaration and the American Revolution by media fiat.

On the heels of "Scopes," the New Deal inaugurated Big Government tyranny. Implicit in President Roosevelt's nonsensical declaration, "We have nothing to fear but fear itself," was the denial of a foundational teaching of the Bible - "the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom." The seven years between the Scopes demotion of God's Word to myth and the birth of New Deal Socialism was the hinge on which the American belief in a Creator-Savior was turned to faith in Big Government Salvation. Goliath Government implicitly ordered the "Creator" of the Declaration to stand down.

DEJA VU? - TWO PHARAOHS - KING GEORGE III IN 1776 AND PRESIDENT OBAMA IN 2016

The 2016 anniversary of the Declaration of Independence's clarion call for rebellion against government tyranny rings like a fire alarm at midnight. Can you hear it? While being tyrannized by a president who reigns like an African Pharaoh, History's Great Nation is in the most dizzying nosedive since the Civil War. Let's remember that America's founders pictured the American Revolution as a western replay of Exodus and called King George III - "Pharaoh." Will history one day note the giant irony of 2016? Americans are so anesthetized under the dark spell of the “mediums” that they were blind to the fact that an “African-American” president ruling like an imperious African Pharaoh put America into this nosedive.

Talk radio keeps reminding Americans of the Constitution, but ignores its older and more significant brother, The Declaration. The Declaration’s earthshaking idea of God’s authorization of freedom from government tyranny transformed world governance from the ancient institution of monarchy to the modern politics of democratic elections. Today’s tyrannical government is on a campaign to control every aspect of American lives. Is there a relationship between the whiting-out of the Declaration’s doctrine of a “Creator” and the brazen government tyranny Americans are suffering under?

Who would have thought that a nonsensical, humiliating monkey-to-man quack science theory could erase America’s official, divine warrant for freedom-from-government-tyranny? Are you aware that the most effective defense of evolutionists has not been scientific evidence, but rather, nasty religious bigotry - “only stupid fundamentalist creationists don’t believe in evolution?”

You mean “stupid fundamentalist creationists” like the authors of the Declaration of Independence?

What was “obvious” in 1776 has been ruled ridiculous in 2016. The third sentence of the Declaration announces to the world, “We hold these truths to be self-evident [i.e., obvious] that all men are created equal - that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.”

The Scopes Trial laid the foundation for the Media Education Complex’ war against Christianity, sanitized as “the Culture War.” “Scopes” jumpstarted the century-long media denunciation of the Bible in the most Bible-shaped nation in the modern world. By outlawing the Bible as an authority in the court of public opinion, the media deviously excises the Declaration’s “Creator” at the conclusion of the document, which identifies the “Creator” as also the future “Supreme Judge of the world.”

Apparently Americans haven’t noticed that by denying the reality of the Creator-God on which American freedom was authorized, the license for American freedom-from-tyrannical-government has been quietly shifted from God to the tyrannical government that the Declaration specifically rebelled against.

How ironic that the Constitution’s major protection from government tyranny has been secretly stolen by the nullification of the most famous line of its older sibling, the Declaration. Government Media censorship has erased Constitutional freedom of speech, substituting in its place Orwellian political correctness and hate speech laws. The idea that Americans “are endowed by their Creator with certain...Rights, including Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness” has been rendered as antiquated as chamber pots.

The belief in the Creator of the Bible and his providential superintendence of history was the spiritual foundation for the Declaration and the American Revolution. Without a confident belief in a Creator, who responds to prayer and providentially rewards the righteous and condemns tyrants, there would have been no American Revolution. It is no accident that America grew into History’s Great Nation on the clock of the belief that America was “God’s Creation.” And neither is it mere coincidence that on the clock of America’s militant atheist era, history’s “last best hope” is in a tailspin en route to an apocalyptic crash.

On this anniversary of the Declaration, Americans are wondering if “the last best hope” can survive this diabolical tyranny. Isn’t it time for Americans to awaken from the media-anesthetization of their souls to admit it’s their fault? Americans, including Christians and their leaders, have been the enablers of the suffering under the tyranny Penn forecast.

By rejecting God, America has elected tyrants. Today's zombie-like acceptance of tyranny is made even more insane and horrifying by the gleeful election of arrogant tyrants that media-brainwashed Americans believe are saviors.

We are living with the very scenario the founding fathers feared and worked so hard to prevent.

Americans today have forgotten what the American Revolutionaries knew. Around the time of the Revolution, Edmund Burke wrote that once famous line, "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." What are "good men?" The second to last paragraph of the Declaration calls for revolution against tyranny on "the Authority of the good People of these Colonies." What? Did the founders not know that Jesus said there are no "good people," that only God is good? They knew. The founders used the term "good People" referring to the "Christian Center" of the Revolution. The Bible informs us that true Christians have been made "good," i.e., righteous, in their Creator's eyes by electing His Son as their King. In doing that, people acknowledge that they are not good enough to stand in eternity before "the Supreme Judge of the world." They understand their great need for and acceptance of God's Son's sacrificial payment on the cross for their sins.

Did you know most of the American colonists did not support America's Revolution? Only a third, mostly Christian products of a Bible-shaped culture, did support the Revolution. Virtually every one of the founders was a Christian, and the large majority were evangelicals. Let's remember that the American Revolution began in America's original "Bible Belt," Puritan Massachusetts. The "shot heard around the world" was fired by the Redcoats against a group of churchmen led by their pastor in Lexington. America was established in ultra-evangelical Philadelphia, which was named for the Christ-praised church in the book of Revelation. Just as at the time of the American Revolution, it was true Christians who helped the Creator create History's Great Nation. It is today time for true Christians to help God save America once more.
