THE FALL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION: AN UPDATE AND A WARNING

By John Levi

This article is the follow-up to my August Last Days Beacon article, “Fall of the European Union” and is meant to bring to light the recent developments that have happened in the United Kingdom and Europe since August. There have been many developments and surely there are many more to come. The August article’s introduction touched on the spiritual nature of tyranny. Indeed, that is what the E.U. is, a supranational body that seeks to destroy the national sovereignty of the member states and meld them into what will eventually be a one world government ruled by none other than the Antichrist. This is not the only front where Satan is working to bring about his false empire; however, it is the one that seems to be where he is expending a tremendous amount of resources and has been doing so since the end of WWII.

Poor Europe was so war torn at the end of WW II that it is perfectly understandable that many leaders at that time, including Sir Winston Churchill and Konrad Adenauer, wanted to form a sort of co-op among the countries of Europe. It certainly goes without saying that it was the rival European powers; British, French, and German, etc. that led to WWI and the “rematch” of WWII. WWI is where the European Empires died. WWII is the war in which Europe almost died. Nigel Farage, member of the European Parliament and former leader of the United Kingdom Independence Party, has said repeatedly that the original idea of a European Union was a good one, but that it has become a political experiment whose aim is to destroy the sovereignty of the member nations. Succinctly put but nonetheless very well said indeed.

Where Does the Fall of the E.U. Stand Right now?

Theresa May

Great Britain is in need of great prayer right now. It is common knowledge by now on this side of the Pond that the Brits very bravely voted to leave the E.U. with the Brexit Referendum. What the present leaders of the E.U. feared, namely that a successful Brexit would ignite a fuse in other member states to begin the process of leaving, may well be realized.

In fact, Marine Le Pen, Member of the European Parliament and Leader of the Front National Party in France has told people and press to call her “Madame Frexit,” Geert Wilders, Member of the Dutch Parliament and leader of the Party for Freedom in Netherlands has also promised a Nexit Referendum in Holland if his party is put in power in the upcoming general election in January, 2017.

So the brave British have set off a firestorm with Brexit; however, all is not well. The problem is that the only way for any member nation to break free from the E.U. is to invoke what is known as Article 50 of the Lisbon Treaty. Back in 2005, an E.U. Constitution was put forth and voted down by the Dutch and French. The E.U. Bureaucrats did not care in the least. They simply created the Lisbon Treaty and pushed it in through the back door. The Irish had a referendum vote on that and even though they voted against it, the E.U. Leaders went ahead with it anyway. So, the British Government in power must invoke Article 50 for that is the only way for them to legally divest themselves from the E.U.

The problems began right after Brexit. David Cameron, who’s Conservative Party, aka the Tory Party, beat Labour in the last general election in 2015 by promising a Brexit Referendum. He made good on his promise, but campaigned hard for the Remain side. Due to the Leave side winning, he resigned the next day as Prime Minister. The struggle for leadership came down to Andrea Leadsom who campaigned hard for the Leave side and Theresa May who was Home Secretary under Cameron and half-heartedly campaigned for the Remain side. They were chosen by other Tory Members of Parliament because they are the party in power and there will not be another general election until 2020 unless the ruling party calls one. After the mainstream British Press beat up Leadsom she quit and by default May became the next Prime Minister.

Many have since accused May of being an establishment shill who is not serious about Brexit because her government has taken no legal steps to start the U.K. separating itself from the E.U. At the recent Tory Party Conference in late September, she laid out the concrete steps that she and her team will make to invoke Article 50 and has stated that the end of March of 2017 will be the time when that will occur.

Points for Prayer: Pray that Theresa May’s government will invoke Article 50 sooner than the end of March 2017. Also, pray that Nigel Farage would come to a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ and that his party, UKIP, would survive and return to credibility after he stepped down as leader. Pray that Prime Minister May would turn to the Holy Spirit for strength and return to her Christian roots, as her father was an Anglican Vicar. Lastly, pray that the U.K. as a whole would rediscover its Christian roots as they prepare to slug it out in negotiations with the E.U. II Chronicles 7:14*

France: Marine Le Pen’s Front National Party is riding very high in the French polls right now. Needless to say the migrant crisis in Calais and the series of terrorist attacks that Paris and France have suffered over the past year has only highlighted what she and many other freedom and nation-loving patriots across Europe have been saying about Islam for many years now. However, the establishment has dug up Nikolas Sarkozy, who was President of France from 2007 to 2012 and lost in 2012 to Francois Hollande, a rabid Socialist. Hollande has been in lock step with Chancellor Merkel’s disastrous migrant policy. Sarkozy is an establishment shill who is very likely running to try and block Le Pen. He was also president when the last financial crisis hit and went right along with the E.U. bureaucrats who went full bore with quantitative easing which was and is disastrous. This is what put then British Prime Minister Cameron and the British Government on a collision course with the E.U. Central Bank and E.U. Government.

Marine Le Pen also, like her counterpart, Nigel Farage leads a pro nationalist block in the E.U. Parliament called Europe of Nations and Freedoms or ENF which she co-founded with Geert Wilders in 2015. It is common knowledge on the Continent that if the Front National Party takes over France, they have already won big in local provincial and town elections. If Le Pen becomes president, France will have a referendum and may very well leave the E.U. That is why I suspect Sarkozy was brought back from the political hinterland to try and thwart Le Pen because Hollande is so unpopular in France right now. Many have asked him to not even run for the presidency of the French Republic again. Back in April, after Jean Claude Juncker gave his yearly state of the E.U. speech. Le Pen assailed him verbally and said: "the E.U. is collapsing on itself." Many of the common people on the Continent are realizing this is true.

Points for Prayer: *Pray that Marine Le Pen would find the Lord Jesus Christ as her Savior as she is campaigning hard to defeat the establishment in her beloved France and break free from the serfdom of the E.U. Also, pray that the Holy Spirit would protect Ms. Le Pen and her niece, Marion Le Pen, who is in the French Parliament. Lastly, pray that the Lord would move on the hearts of the French People that their identity and nation are being stolen and this upcoming general election in January, 2017 may be their last opportunity save both. Mark 11:23

The Netherlands: Like Le Pen, Geert Wilders and his Party for Freedom are riding high in the Dutch polls before their general election which is also in January, 2017.

However, Wilders has been attacked over the past decade more viciously than Farage or Le Pen. Back in 2011, he won a court case in Holland that was a hate crime charge. Now that his party is likely to take over the government of the Netherlands, and he looks all but certain to become the next Prime Minister of the Netherlands, there has been another hate crime charge thrown at him and he will have to stand trial. The trial is to begin on October 31 and the penalty, if found guilty, is unclear. Like the business with Sarkozy's re-emergence, it is highly suspicious that this is the work of E.U. Bureaucrats and Dutch sympathizers (traitors) working with them.

More Americans may be familiar with Wilders because he is an internationally sought after speaker and has given presentations in the U.S. on numerous occasions. Many may have seen the film that he produced called, "Fitna," which points to what Islam is really all about; that is, world domination and not peace. As has been stated previously, Wilders has promised a Nexit Referendum as soon as his party is put in power. Unlike the Brits, he will not dilly dally around if the people of the Netherlands vote to leave. If France votes in similar fashion, neither will Le Pen.

Points for Prayer: *Unlike Farage, May and Le Pen, I believe that Geert Wilders is a true Christian. He has lived and now still lives with a small army of body-guards and has not much privacy because of the intense protection they have to have over him. The poor man probably has more Islamic Fatwahs issued against him than other anti-Islamist on earth. So, pray for his protection and that he will win the court case on October 31. Let us also pray in faith that his party will win in January and take over the Netherlands. Also, pray that the Holy Spirit will fall on the people of Holland and that they will make the right choice and Nexit. Romans 8:33

Italy: Italy has a Euroskeptic party called Movimento 5 Stella, the 5 Star Movement, and every one of its Members of the European Parliament are in Nigel Farage's Europe for Freedom and Democracy Bloc. Italy has suffered greatly at the hands of the E.U. The Germans under Merkel have manipulated the E.U. and the Euro to their own economic benefit to the great harm to what some refer to as the P I I G S - Portugal, Ireland, Italy, Greece and Spain. These nations, especially after the last financial crisis, were kept from economic ruin because the European Central Bank went on a quantitative easing binge. Since the E.U. Central Bank cannot conduct this program any longer because there are no more German government bonds to pander on the world bond market, these nations have been put under severe austerity measures that are ruining their economies. The youth unemployment rate in Italy alone is something like 37%. However, as if Italy's dreadful economy wasn't suffering enough, Fuhrer Merkel and the rest of the E.U. Politburo got the devious idea, probably prodded by their globalist masters, to inundate Italy and other European nations with migrants. However, there is hope coming on December 4th, 2016.

Mateo Renzi, the current Prime Minister, is like Francois Hollande, a puppet of Fuhrer Merkel and the E.U. top leadership. Movimento 5 Stella, like the Front National Party in France, recently swept local elections in Rome and Torino and is riding very high in the polls. Renzi, in a bid to stave off his Democratic Party's defeat, has called for a constitutional referendum on December 4th that would alter the makeup of the Italian Senate, giving him more power to save him and keep Italy from ever leaving the E.U. or at least try to.

Points for Prayer: Italy was recently rocked by earthquakes. Pray that the Italian People will be steadfast and not let the corporate controlled media deceive them as they vote on December 4th. Pray that they do indeed vote NO to Renzi's referendum and that he will resign from office as David Cameron did. He is not a patriot but a supranationalist and an E.U. puppet. Romans 1:15

Hungary: Hungary, like so many Eastern European and former Soviet Bloc Countries, is increasingly finding itself caught and trapped in the claws of yet another supranational tyrannical body. However, Hungary is unique in that, contrary to the E.U., three presidents defiantly had a nationwide referendum as to whether to let anymore "refugees" migrants into their country. On Sunday, October 2, 2016 The Hungarians, by over 90%, voted to not to abide by the dictates of the E.U. Masters. For sure the top dogs, Jean Claude Juncker, Martin Schulz and Donald Tusk have leveled all kinds of threats at poor Hungary and its Prime Minister, Viktor Orban.

Orban has been a true Prime Minister and many suspect that he is a true Christian. In a recent speech, Orban said that the Islamic migrants that were invading Europe represented a very real threat to the Christian heritage of Europe. He has been the object of as much scorn by the E.U. as the U.K. is now experiencing. He also reminded the audience of how the West abandoned Hungary to the Soviets in 1945 and how they did so again in 1956 when the Hungarian Revolt against Soviet rule occurred.

Although the referendum passed, not quite 50% of Hungarians voted and 200,000 ballots were tampered with. The tampering was probably done by traitors paid off by the E.U. Bureaucrats or by CIA operatives in conjunction with the tyrants in Brussels. That is not the only country that has experienced vote tampering recently. Anti-E.U. politician Norbert Hofer, leader of the Freedom Party of Austria (Osstereichs) would be the president of Austria by now except the Austrian government canceled the run-off with his Green Party when they found evidenced that mail-in ballots had been tampered with. That is the second time it has occurred since this summer, so he is temporarily co-president of Austria until a new date is set. No matter, Orban has promised to abide by the referendum and his government is going to charge ahead by blocking anymore migrants entering Hungary. Poland, incidentally, has also found itself on the wrong side of the E.U. on this issue and has promised to dig its heels in like Orban in Hungary.

Points for Prayer: Pray earnestly for Prime Minister Orban's physical protection. Also pray that the Parliament of Hungary will back him fully as he charges ahead with policies that will block any more migrants from entering their country. It is Hungarian Law that if less than 50% vote in a referendum it is not binding but at the discretion of the ruling government. I Samuel 17:45

A Warning to the United States of America

There is another country that was not listed and that is Ukraine. Many around the world know of the war that has erupted in Eastern Ukraine, specifically in the Donbass Region, which is home to a predominately Novorussian (ethnic Russian) population. They rebelled against Kiev when the U.S. and the E.U. helped the current Prime Minister Poroshenko pull off a coup against the pro-Russian Prime Minister, Viktor Yanukovich. Petro Poroshenko is seen by the people of the Donbass as an E.U. puppet. The E.U. has long had their eyes on the Ukraine. All people in the West hear from the liberal media is that Russia annexed Crimea. Wrong! The people of the Crimea have always seen themselves as Russian and wanted to be part of the Russian Federation. It is likewise true for the people of the Donbass. Senator John McCain is eyeball deep in this war as I suspect the CIA and E.U. intelligence agencies also had much to do with Poroshenko's rise. Poroshenko's forces have ruthlessly and indiscriminately bombed and shelled cities in the Donbass like Lviv and killed thousands of civilians. Here are two videos below to drive it home. This is really what got the Russians involved; the people of the Donbass cried out to them for help.

Here is my warning to America and the Church in the U.S. The people of Europe know who to blame for the migrant crisis and the wars and regime changes in the Middle East that has caused it. The United States and its Sunni Muslim bi-sexual President and former Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton the lesbian are the ones to blame. They are not too fond of the current Secretary of State, John Kerry, either. It is the duty of Christians in the U.S. to pray and work to insure that Hillary Clinton not become president. Marine Le Pen, in a recent speech and criticism directed at President Hollande of France and Chancellor Merkel of Germany, said that she did not want France taking orders from Brussels and Washington D.C. That was right on! Christians in the U.S. need to repent and pray that the U.S. get its big nose out of the Ukraine, the rest of Europe and, most of all, the Middle East. It can do so voluntarily or the Lord God, Who is no respecter of persons, will make the U.S. do it. The world as a whole has suffered enough from the Democrat and Republican Neocon Imperialists of Washington D.C. The people of the Middle East and Europe know that. Too bad, not enough Americans or American Christians do. Romans 2:11
